The Daniel Spargo Mabbs (DSM) Foundation is a charity which aims to provide evidence based and innovative drug and alcohol educational resources and programmes in schools and other community settings.

In collaboration with the DSM Foundation, researchers and post-graduate students from the Drug and Alcohol Research Centre, Middlesex University have conducted studies on three aspects of the programme: teachers' experiences and perceptions of delivering the programme, the workshops for parents and carers and the theatre in education performances of their commissioned play, 'I Love You, Mum - I Promise I Won't Die', written by Mark Wheeler. The findings will be presented and be followed by a discussion.

All are welcome and it is free to attend. Please book on this link <https://bit.ly/2RwZL36>
